

Club Handicap 1 13th October 2009

Natalie Dawson got the better of the handicapper to secure an Under-15 victory in the opening round of the Corby AC winter handicap series. The event over the two mile two lap course on the town's Earlstree industrial estate saw Dawson finish well clear of Irina Parv with Scott McIntyre the top boy in third place. Third female home in fourth place was Chloe Iliff while the minor places in the boys' section went to Daniel Diver (eighth) and under-11 Fraser Dalby, whose time of 12.15 when coming 11th was the third fastest boys' time of the night. The fastest with 11.25 was achieved by the versatile Jasper Larken while the next quickest with 12.02 was the much improved Sam Furey.

The fastest girl was the consistent Abigail Morrow-Harris who registered a fine 12.14 with the next quickest being Helena Keenan (12.31) and Ellie Welch (12.32).

Alex Wright easily took the Over-15 event from Paul Phazey and Patrick Wilson. Guest runner Gordon Lee recorded the fastest time with 9.18 while Ashley Sabin (9.22) and Mark Greenwood (9.56) – also guests – were the next quickest.

Trudi Pike finished top female ahead of Claire Goodall whose time of 13.18 was the fastest on the night. Kym Wheeler in third was the next fastest with 13.21 while Catherine Wright with 13.29 was the next in line.
