

Corby AC – Winter Season
Presentation Evening
April 2007

Claire Cooper, on behalf of Corus who have supported the club over many years, presented the awards when Corby AC held their winter club presentation evening at the town's Stewart & Lloyds Rugby Club.

The biggest cheer of the night went to Mark Scales, who secured the Special Achievement award for his run in the London Marathon. Mark only started running six months prior to the London and he finished in a time of 5.19.52 which to many may not seem a great achievement except that Mark is registered blind and his supreme effort raised £1,500 for the RNIB. Also picking up an award was Paul Brain who was not only Mark's guide runner in London but throughout the many miles in training leading up to the race. He was presented with the trophy for Most Sporting Road Runner of the Year.

His award was one of several presented for the first time to the road running section of the club, others to be recognised were:

Scott Hall and Hayley Veasey (Male and Female Newcomers of the Year),
Roger Garrity (Best Team Member),
Margaret Thomas (Best Supporter)
Bernadette Curtis (Most Inspiring Road Runner).

The overall Male and Female Road Runners of the Year awards went to Steve Partridge and Trudi Pike.

The Winter Handicap trophies were also presented with Scott Hall taking the Over-15 and Celine Bangay the Under-15.

Winners of the Sportshall trophies were:

Under-11 Girl – Katie Fowler,
Under-11 Boy – Matthew Paul,
Under-13 Girl – Bethany Smyton,
Under-13 Boy – Callum Logan,
Under-15 Girl – Vicky Copperthwaite
Under-15 Boy – Daniel Partridge.

Maired Rocke was the Female Cross Country Runner of the Year while the corresponding male award was shared by Simon Franklin and Stephen Broom.

The indoor trophies went to four athletes who have achieved performances of the highest quality at national level. Winning the Under-17 awards were Lauren Boyd and Jack McShane while the Over-17 awards went to Karen Harewood and Sean Taylor.
