

St Ives 10k
19th July 2009

Both Maree Jesson and Kym Wheeler won their respective veteran age groups when they competed on the roads in the annual St Ives 10km event. The former, who lives in Orlingbury, covered the distance in 40.05 to clinch the veteran-35 section and finish fourth overall and Wheeler, a member of Corby AC, secured top honours in the veteran-50 section in a time of 45.45 which slotted her into 16th overall.

Also running well was Loddington's Yvonne Scarrott, who was third in the veteran-40 age group and ninth overall in 41.57 and Brixworth's Alison Cooper (Rugby & Northampton AC) whose fine time of 39.53 brought her home third overall behind Herts Phoenix's Lizzie Hall (38.06) and Tamara Jordan (Stowmarket Striders) who won in 37.30.

First local male home was Northampton Road Runner Andy Blaize who clocked 38.07 for 15th while also having a good run was Kettering Town Harrier Lee Coulson who came 46th in 41.08. Bedford & County's Matthew Janes easily won in 32.54 from Wells City's Andrew Hennessy (33.40).
