

Grantham Half Marathon
March 8th 2009

The Corby AC pair of Kym Wheeler and John Thomas defied the tough, windy conditions to win their respective age groups in the Grantham half marathon.

The former lifted the top prize in the veteran-50s when she returned a time of 1.39.10 to defeat Norwich's Anne Millett (1.43.34) and give her an overall position of ninth. At the head of the field York Knavesmire Harrier Kate Nelson took top honours in 1.25.41.

Thomas came out on top in the veteran-65 section with a clocking of 1.37.29 which saw him finish well ahead of unattached runner Richard Emarton (1.56.19). Overall he came 68th while at the front of the race Woodbridge's Aaron Scott won in a time of 1.14.54.
