

Northamptonshire Athletics Awards
19th September 2008

The 3rd Northamptonshire Athletics awards evening was held last Friday at the Corn Market Hall in Kettering.

The evening was organised by the Northants Athletic Association, Northamptonshire Sports and the East Midland Region of England Athletics to celebrate the achievements of the county athletes and the many volunteers who give up their time to help them achieve their ambitions.

The winners were:

Track & Field Junior Female – Beth Smyton of Corby AC;

Track & Field Senior Male – Damien Moss of R & N AC;

Endurance Junior Female – Jess Dimmock of R & N AC;

Endurance Junior Male – Jonathan Goringe of KTH;

Endurance Senior Female – Hannah Jones of R & N AC;

Endurance Senior Male – Neil Barnett of Wellingborough & District AC;

Official of the Year – Mike Buxton of KTH;

Volunteer of the Year – Carol Boyd of Corby AC;

Club of the Year – Wellingborough & District AC;

Coach of the Year – Steve Stredwick of Wellingborough & District AC;

Partnership of the Year – Northampton Schools Sports Partnership.

The Services to Athletics award, which is different from the rest as it is for long term contribution to athletics in the county, went to Corby AC Chairman and ET athletics correspondent John Montgomery, who has been involved in the sport for over 45 years.

Also presented on the night to Daventry AC and Wellingborough & District AC were their certificates for achieving their clubmark accreditation set out by the East Midland Region of England Athletics.
