

Titchmarsh 10km

In the 13th running of the Titchmarsh 10km road race over its customary out and back hilly course, Terry Toseland led all the way to record his fourth victory in the event which is sponsored by accountants Bulley Davey.

The Kettering Town Harrier was always in command as he raced home in 35.36 to finish comfortably clear of Nene Valley Harrier veteran Stan Owen (35.51). Behind the pair Corby AC's former winner in 2002, Troy Garrity, was a clear third in 36.06 while also running well were Wellingborough & District AC's Neil Barnett (fifth in 36.52), Corby's Danny Keating (sixth in 37.15), Phil West of KTH (eighth in 37.45), Northampton Road Runner Andy Blaize (11th in 38.22) and Corby's John Eames, who was 12th in 38.30.

Former winner Rachel Sutcliffe (Riverside Runners) also led from start to finish to win the ladies race in a time of 39.53. In her wake Maree Jesson continued her heavy racing schedule when clinching the runner-up spot in 40.37.

Marianne Boyle (Kettering) – a former county track and cross country champion in the younger age groups – ran well to take fourth in 44.40 while the Corby veteran pair of Jane Walker (ninth in 48.07) and Donna Argo (12th in 49.02) turned in good performances.
