12th August 2007

Kym Wheeler returned to top form following a lengthy spell out with injury when she finished runner-up in her veteran-45 age category in the Newark half marathon.

The Corby AC runner covered the mainly flat course – run in perfect conditions – in 1.38.59 when finishing behind Sleaford Strider Jane James (1.33.47). Wheeler's effort slotted her into 19th place overall as Milton Keynes' Jane Preen easily won in 1.21.00.

Also competing for Corby was Gennadi Krasnikov who finished 264th overall in the men's section with a time of 1.48.24. That time gave him 11th place in the veteran-55 section won by Ipswich's Raymond Hill (1.24.34) while Billy Farquharson (Notts AC) won the overall race in 1.10.13 from Salford's Pumiani Bangani (1.10.58).
